

New York Beef Producers' Association Annual College Scholarship Application

The New York Beef Producers' Association will award a $1000 scholarship to a qualifying college student at the 2023 NYBPA annual conference.

Scholarship requirements:

- Must be current, full-time college student who is planning a career related to the agricultural and cattle industry.
- Must be a New York resident.

Nothing is more important than providing a sound education for future producers. Those planning to work in the cattle industry in this century will need to be proficient not only in animal science, but also crop science, communications, technology, business management, and economics. The cattle industry is in a time of constant change. The New York Beef Producers' Association wants to provide a scholarship to help a deserving young cattleman or cattlemoman help finance their education.

We are grateful to the support of our membership in developing funding for this award. There is no question that education, along with practical experience, is the key to the future competitiveness of the U.S. cattle industry. Offering this scholarship is just one of the ways that the NYBPA is helping prepare and develop tomorrow's leaders. The winner will be announced at the NYBPA Awards Program in January 2023 in Syracuse, NY.

Applicant should submit the application form, their responses to all the questions, and official copy of their college transcript (first semester freshman should provide a college reference) to the NYBPA Office, Amanda Dackowsky, 10040 Hooker Hill Rd. Perrysburg, NY by December 31st, 2022.

The winner will be chosen on the following criteria:
